Overview of Training:

During this two-part online course, we will look at recent research on the impact of oracy-rich curriculums. We will explore why oracy is so important and the impact it has on success in education and future life chances.

Course Content:

We will provide guidance on how to:

- Use current research and published documents to identify whole school priorities
- Look at the progression of oracy skills from EYFS to Year 6
- Identify key areas of the English National Curriculum that develop oracy
- Carry out an audit of current practice
- Establish ways to build more opportunities for all aspects of oracy across the wider curriculum
- Make oracy a whole school priority
- Write an Action Plan for your school.
