

One-to-One Reading, Group Reading and Guided Reading in Reception

Course Details

Date: 15th November 2024

Venue: Online (Zoom)

Time: 09:15-11:45

Cost: £60 per delegate

Course Leader: Debs Bragard

Overview of Training:

This online course will support you to teach Reception children to read decodable texts using One-to-One, Group Reading and Guided Reading sessions.

Course Content:

The course will provide:

- support on how to improve decoding skills using phonics;
- guidance on how to develop reading for meaning and comprehension for early readers;
- advice on how to engage and motivate the very early readers in any class to learn how books work and to “have a go” at using newly acquired phonic knowledge;
- guidance on how to work with children 1-1, ensuring that this is not just ‘listening to’ but has an impact on reading progress;
- support on how to develop a structured approach to planning, teaching and assessing early readers in EYFS;
- advice on how to ensure children are using newly acquired phonic knowledge and other word reading skills to decode books in a school’s reading scheme.

Bookings can be made by visiting www.teachcr.com/eyfs or contacting enquiries@teachcr.com