

New to Subject Leadership

Course Details

Date: 25th October 2023

Venue: Online (Zoom)

Time: 09:15-11:15

Cost: £50 per delegate

Course Leader: David Redfern

Overview of Training:

This online course is specifically designed for teaching staff that have recently taken on the responsibility of a new subject area or department. We will identify why subject leadership is important and guide you with practical strategies and offer suggestions that can be implemented, encouraging the effective management of a subject.

Course Content:

During the session, we will reflect on your journey so far as a subject leader and consider how you can make a difference to both your area of focus and the colleagues that you manage.

Guidance will focus on:

- Using a positional statement as a starting point for effective subject leadership
- Evaluating teaching and learning
- Leading sustainable improvement
- Developing rapport within your team
- Developing an ongoing subject leader audit document
- Subject on a page
- Developing pupil voice
- School website
- Parental engagement
